SPCS Auction Donations

The auction committee is currently gathering donations for both the live and silent auctions. Please, only new items. Any used or opened items will not be auctioned off. We would gladly accept any special talents you'd like to share with us as well (woodworking, artwork, crafts, photography, etc.) The sky is the limit! Anyone interested in making donations for the auction (monetary, and/or physical items), please contact Kayan (620-820-4002) or Jamie (620-249-1410).

Why couldn't they play cards on the Ark?
 Because Noah was standing on the deck.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

August 5th, 2018

In the Gospel from John, Jesus advises us, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." By calling Himself the Bread of Life, Jesus is telling us by what He says, how He acts, and in fact Who He is that He is the Word of God made flesh.

God reveals to us the Word alive in the most complete way possible, through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We are to hear the Word and know Who Jesus is; we are to accept that Word into our minds and hearts — into our spirit — and we are to let that Word begin to change us.

That change is represented by knowing what God wants us to do. Today's Holy Scriptures make that clear. We must pray that we respond and do be good stewards of our time, talent, and treasure so that we can do the work God wants us to do. In the Second Reading, Paul reminds us that we need to undergo a conversion — in effect put on a new self. Our entire lives need to be devoted to change, so that we renew ourselves from the inside and live a stewardship way of life according to God's ways.

Charles Spurgeon, an English minister in the 1800s once wrote, "Conversion is a turning onto the right road. The next thing to do is to walk on it." That is our trial. Once we experience conversion, we must follow through by doing what the Lord wishes us to do.

It's When We Are Busy, That We Need More

A priest friend of mine said he once gave spiritual direction to a religious sister back in the 70s. At that time it was common for people to say, "My work is my prayer." When this priest inquired of the good sister's prayer life she answered: "Oh, I'm too busy to pray, but that's OK, my work is my prayer, that's my spirituality." And he said, "Sister, if you're not praying you don't have a spirituality." And he got her praying one hour a day.

Some years later he ran into her at the airport. By now she had moved on to become a major superior in her order. "How are you doing Mother," he asked. "Oh," she said, "I am very busy!" (and he cringed), but she added, "I am so busy these days, that I have to spend two hours a day praying!" Now there's a smart woman. When we're stupid we think, "I am too busy to pray," When we're smart we say, "I am so busy, I need to pray more." Are you busy enough yet to spend at least an hour with our Eucharistic Lord in the Adoration Chapel?
