Stewardship Reflection

October 14, 2018

Part of the beauty of stewardship spirituality is its simplicity and practicality. It can be summed up in the simple phrase, "All I have is a gift from God and I must make a grateful return to Him for all He has given me."

So simple, that even our youngest parishioners can grasp the concept. Simple, however, does not necessarily mean easy. Simple also does not mean shallow.

Today's readings invite us to look into the depth of a stewardship way of life. And they reveal that it requires the commitment of our whole being to God. It is anything but easy or shallow. It points us to seek after higher things — the wisdom of God and Heaven itself.

Our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Hebrews, shows us a way to obtain such wisdom —it is available to us right in the Scriptures, which are the living word of God. Every time we approach them in a spirit of prayer, they will speak to us. God's wisdom is right there for us. All we need to do is commit some daily time to seek it.

Our Gospel Reading from Mark is one of the better-known passages in the Gospel — the story of the rich young man. In response to the man's question on what he must do to obtain eternal life, Jesus tells him to keep the commandments. The man replies that he has always done this much. But he rightfully suspects there is more to being a disciple of Jesus than just following the external rules

We are called to be so much more than rule-followers; we are called to be Christ followers. A stewardship way of life frees us to follow Christ with all of our being and so to find eternal life.

CYM Enchilada Sales!

Order your choice of one dozen beef or cheese enchiladas after any Mass on Oct. 6-7 or Oct. 13-14. You may also place an order with a CYM student. $20 per dozen, beef or cheese. Enchiladas will be made and ready for pick up after all Masses the weekend of Oct. 27-28. Call Bethany at 620-778-5536 for any questions.

We want to Communicate more effectively with you. But we also want to make it easy for you to control what types of announcements you get from us and how you are notified when we make them. And in order to do this we are using a new, simple service called FLOCKNOTE.

This is all totally free for you to use and it's going to also make it easy for you to stay plugged in to the ministries or groups that you care about, all by text message or email updates. Your information will be completely safe and secure. And you can unsubscribe from any updates at any time!

Just text..... jointspats to 84576.
 Then after it responds, make sure you click that link and complete the process.

Please Pray for: Caleb Thaddeus Fent & Danielle Mercado
 Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him Oh Lord, Donald "Don" Morris, husband of Vicki Morris, father to Chris. May Perpetual Light Shine Upon Him, May He Rest in Peace. Amen

Dear Abby

A few years ago, an interchange of letters appeared in a nationally syndicated newspaper column.

Dear Abby: We are not overly religious people, but we do like to go to Church once in a while. It seems to me that every time we turn around, we are hit for money. I thought religion was free. I realize that churches have to have some money, but I think it is getting to be a racket. Just what do Churches do with all their money? Curious in North Jersey.

Abby wrote back,

Dear Curious: Even priests, ministers and rabbis must eat. Since they work full-time at their tasks, their Churches must support them. Staff and musicians must also be paid. Buildings must be maintained, heated, lighted and beautified. Custodial staff members must eat and feed their families.

Most Churches engage in philanthropic work (aid to the needy, missions, and education); hence, they have their financial obligations. Even orchids, contrary to folklore, do not live on air. Churches can't live on air either. Religions, like water, may be free, but when they pipe it to you, you've got to help pay for the piping. And the piper.

Altar Society will have a baked potato bar, Ginger Shandies and our first book share on Thursday, October 18 @ 6:00 pm in the parish hall!

Bring your favorite book(s) related to our faith that was inspirational to you and we will sip a shandy and see all the books on display.

Safe Haven, our homeless shelter, is in need of the following items if you can bring some to the meeting: Trash bags, Ibuprofen, Tylenol, Cold medicine, Tums, Shampoo and conditioner. Thank you! Dana

FYI—Sunday homilies are now available on the parish website, from the Home page @ www.stpatricksparsons.org

STEAK DINNER DANCE AT CHERRYVALE
