Stewardship Reflection

10/21/2018

Our readings today are wonderfully consoling and wildly challenging. If we take them to heart, they just might change our lives. For they should call us to profound gratitude for all that God has done for us and inspire us to live lives of thanksgiving and obedience to Him in response to His overwhelming love and mercy.

In the Gospel Reading, from Mark, Jesus tells us in His own words how we can thank Him and how our lives can reflect greatness in His eyes — we can imitate Him. He tells us, "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Our God has ransomed our lives. In truth, this "ransom" means our lives are not our own but belong to God. We must do what He asks us to do with them. And He has told us clearly what to do — serve others in love as we have been served in love by Him. This is why service for the Christian Steward is not an add-on to our already busy lives. It is our life.

Over the course of the next week, take these readings to heart. Reflect on the remarkable love God has shown for you. Then look carefully at your daily life. Is it an imitation of the servant-love of your Brother and Savior? What changes do you need to make, perhaps just in attitude, or perhaps to the trajectory of your life as a whole, to live in grateful service to the One who loves you so?

Please Pray for: Danielle Mercado, Colleen Eisenbart and Barbara Workman.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto him Oh Lord, Pearson Reed McMurphy son of Melanie and Ryan. Grandson of Chris and Mari Anne Hansen. Let Perpetual light shine upon him. May He Rest in Peace. Amen

Sir, I am a Corporal!

During the American Revolution, a man in civilian clothes rode past a group of soldiers who were busy pulling out a horse carriage stuck in deep mud. Their officer was shouting instructions to them while making no attempt to help.

The stranger who witnessed the scene asked the officer why he wasn't helping. With great dignity, the officer replied, "Sir, I am a Corporal!" The stranger dismounted from his horse and proceeded to help the exhausted soldiers himself.

When the job was completed, he turned to the corporal and said, "Corporal, next time you have a job like this, and don't have enough men to do it, inform your commander-in-chief, and I will come and help you again."

Too late, the proud Corporal recognized General Washington. Washington understood that those who aspire to greatness or rank first among others must serve the needs of all. Where did Washington learn such leadership skills?

Perhaps he learned them from these words of Jesus: "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant." The young corporal had these words modeled for him by the man at the top. Jesus' disciples, likewise, receive from their leader a picture of servanthood.

Baked Goods Needed:

The Altar Society is in need of homemade desserts and goodies, for their bake sale, after masses on Nov 3rd and 4th.! Please, help the Altar Society, and show off your baking skills, bring your homemade desserts to the hall before 5pm Mass or on Sunday.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY..... FR. CURTIS

Kapaun's Men

Kapaun's men will be kicking off October 26 at 5:30 am in Parish Hall. Men of all ages are invited to attend. Our meetings last 1 hour and are focused on becoming closer to Christ through the examples of the faith and virtues of Father Kapaun. We will be starting back at the very first series so this would be a great time to join if you have never attended.

We want to Communicate more effectively with you. But we also want to make it easy for you to control what types of announcements you get from us and how you are notified when we make them. And in order to do this we are using a new, simple service called FLOCKNOTE.

This is all totally free for you to use and it's going to also make it easy for you to stay plugged in to the ministries or groups that you care about, all by text message or email updates. Your information will be completely safe and secure. And you can unsubscribe from any updates at any time!

Just text..... jointspats to 84576.

Then after it responds, make sure you click that link and complete the process.
