Adoration of Our Lord

A partial indulgence is granted the Christian faithful when they visit the Blessed Sacrament for the purpose of adoration. When this is done for at least half an hour, the indulgence is a plenary one. I don't know about you, but I know I need all the help I can get! Just think of all the treasure we can store for Heaven when we sign up for a weekly Holy Hour before the Lord in our Adoration Chapel! Call the Rectory and sign up for any hour of any day. Ideally, at least two people should be signed up for each hour.

PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER AN ADORATION HOUR WHETHER WEEKLY, EVERY OTHER WEEK OR ONCE A MONTH ADORERS NEEDED FOR THE FOLLOWING HOURS.

Stewardship Reflection
November 18th, 2018

In the first reading prophet Daniel describes a time “unsurpassed in distress since nations began” and warns that “many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, and others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.” The second reading, from Hebrews, speaks of Christ who “waits until his enemies are made his footstool.”

However, when we firmly establish for ourselves as individuals — as a family and as a parish that we will give to God the first and best portion of our Time, Talent, and Treasure — the warnings we read in the Scriptures today should be no cause for alarm. In fact, we can view these words as encouragement — “Keep Calm and Steward On,” no matter what comes our way.

One of the blessings of a stewardship way of life is that in challenging times, whether in our homes or workplaces or even our beloved Church itself, we can take great comfort in knowing we have a concrete plan to keep our priorities in right order. And, when we put God first in all aspects of our lives, we will experience the peace that He gives that surpasses all understanding

Black Friday

While “Black Friday” may not be an “officially” recognized U.S. Holiday, I noticed this past week that it automatically popped-up on my Google calendar as a U.S. Holiday. There are many people who will spend a portion of their Thanksgiving day pouring over sale ads looking for the best “Black Friday” deals. That night, or very early the next morning, they will brave the perhaps bitter cold weather and the crowds to search out and secure those deals. I know in years past, perhaps even still, there were some websites where you could print out maps of the stores, so you could plan out the most effective route to get everything on your list.

There really is a lot of planning and foresight that goes into “Black Friday”. It takes making the list of those items you want to get for yourself or others, it takes using the resources such as the sales ads and store maps, and it takes the action of actually going out and securing those desired things. But how long do those things we buy on “Black Friday” really last or really bring joy and fulfillment? How long before the toy or item we spent so much time planning and effort getting for that special person just becomes another toy or item they no longer play with or use?

Why don't we put forth the same amount of time planning and effort preparing for and securing those things that really matter? As our Mass readings, at the end of our liturgical year, turn apocalyptic in nature reminding of us of our mortality and as we soon begin the Season of Advent, let us apply the same effort to preparing our souls and the souls of our loved ones for what really matters. Namely the receiving of Jesus Christ into our hearts and lives at Christmas and the preparation of spending an eternity with Him in Heaven, because those are the things that will truly last.

Fiat Discernment Retreat

Fiat Ministries is devoted to encouraging young women to answer “yes” to the vocation to which God is calling them. The Fiat Discernment Retreat is an opportunity for young women to ask questions, pray, listen, and open their hearts to the Lord's will. Throughout this weekend of discernment, participants will receive wisdom through prayer, presentations by religious sisters, recreation, and fellowship.

Single women, age 18-27 who are seeking to do God's will, are invited to attend the upcoming Fiat Discernment Retreat on December 14-16, 2018 at the Spiritual Life Center. The cost of the retreat is $25 which includes meals, lodging and materials.
