Did You Know??

In the 1930's, you were able to rent your favorite pew in church for a small fee, so Fr. Curtis was thinking about reviving that idea to generate more revenue. The back 6 pews would be pricey, and you would pay less or nothing going forward, to the front. :)
 In 1970, Mike Carson taught at St. Patricks High School and was the head coach of all the sports programs.
 In 1964, Janell Carson ran in the Olympic's in Tokyo and was on the cover of Sports Illustrated on May 16, 1965.

Stewardship Reflection
 01/20/2019

Today's Gospel reading from John recounts the familiar story of the wedding feast at Cana when Jesus launched His public ministry by performing His first miracle at his mother's request. In the midst of the feast, the Blessed Mother noticed that the wine had run out and pointed out the problem to Jesus. Then, she gave the servants instructions that are equally applicable to us modern-day stewards, saying, "Do whatever He tells you." Jesus gives the servants a simple and seemingly mundane task, telling them to fill some stone jars with water. They did what He told them to do. And Jesus used their obedience in the accomplishment of that simple task to perform His first miracle, turning the water into the choicest wine. Our Lord didn't have to include those servants in order to perform this miracle — He chose to. And today, 2,000 plus years later, He still chooses to include us in the performance of His miracles through our cooperation with Him in using the gifts and talents He has given us. What a privilege! Let us take care to listen to our Blessed Mother: let's examine our lives this week to see if we really are "doing whatever He tells us," cooperating with God to make the best use of the gifts He has given us for the benefit of those around us. If we all take this call seriously, He will perform miracles in our families and our parish.

Make sure you invite Jesus and Mary!

Johnny Carson (who hosted the Tonight Show for 30 years), was interviewing an eight-year-old boy one night. The young man was asked to appear on the Late Show because he had rescued two friends from a coal mine outside his hometown in West Virginia. As Johnny questioned him, it became apparent that the boy was a Christian. Johnny asked him if he attended Sunday school. When the boy said he did, Johnny inquired, "What are you learning in Sunday school?" "Last week," the boy replied, "our lesson was about how Jesus went to a wedding and turned water into wine." The audience burst into laughter and applause. Keeping a straight face, Johnny asked, "And what did you learn from that story?" The boy squirmed in his chair. It was apparent he hadn't thought about this. But then he lifted up his face and said, "If you're going to have a wedding, make sure you invite Jesus and Mary!" And that is precisely the message of today's Gospel: make sure you invite Jesus and Mary wherever you live and wherever you go — they are the only ones you'll ever need. In other words, today's Gospel lesson is about the sufficiency of Christ in our lives and the power of his Mother's intercession.

Dear St. Patrick's--

Thank you all so much for giving to the angel tree gift drive. Our guests were blown away blessed. Everything was amazing. It is an honor to work with your Church and this group of caring souls. As you know, it takes us all doing our small part to make an impact in the world! Again, thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

ADORATION OF OUR LORD

"Do whatever He tells you!" (Jn 2:5)
 Being faithful to this request from the Holy Mother of God can bring joy and peace to our souls. This is advice from our Mother who loves us very much and knows what is best for her children. Visit her Son in Eucharistic Adoration and pay attention to what He is asking of you. Call the church office to sign up for your weekly Holy Hour.

Parish Day of Prayer by the St. Patrick's Pro-Life Committee

—Join us Tuesday, January 22nd at 8am for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Our Lord will remain in repose in the church until Holy Mass at 5:30pm. Father Curtis will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation after Mass, from 6-7pm, or until all are heard. The Day of Prayer will end at 8pm with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The particular intention for this day is to offer prayers and sacrifices for the end to abortion and all sins against life and against the family. Pray also for the 60,000,000+ babies who have lost their lives to abortion over the last 46 years and for the mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers who have been wounded physically or emotionally from abortion. Thank you so much! Sonja
