Newsletter for St. Patrick Catholic School
1831 Stevens Parsons, KS 67357 620-421-0710
March 28, 2019

Easter is just a few weeks away. Please pray for those coming into the Church this year at the Easter Triduum. The "Triduum" is a very special Holy Week devotion, that can almost be described as one 3-day long Mass. It begins Holy Thursday with the "Mass of the Last Supper", continues Good Friday by reading the Passion and Exulting the Cross, and concludes Holy Saturday night with the Easter Vigil. The Easter Vigil Mass begins with the lights off, the Easter Candle is lit representing the Resurrection of Jesus, and there are extra Scripture readings walking us through Salvation History. Traditionally the Easter Vigil is when we welcome new members into the Church with Baptism, Confirmation, and/or First Communion. We are excited to again have students, family members, and staff members receiving their Sacrament this Easter. Everyone is encouraged to join the parish in any or all of the 3 days of celebration. The Triduum Mass and Devotional times are included on the April calendar on the back of this newsletter.

QUIZ BOWL

6th 7th & 8th grade did well again this year in the Mineral Belt League Quiz Bowl competitions. Each school has 3 Quiz Bowl teams (5 students each) split into three pools of similar competition (Pool A is not better than B or C). Our teams in Pool B and Pool C both placed Third.

Registration for 2019-20

Please remember that all Registration paperwork and payments are due by May 15 without accruing a late fee. Please contact the office if you have any questions or need another copy.

Mrs. Bradbury's Last Week

By now you have probably already heard that Mrs. Bradbury has accepted a new job at the Forbes-Hoffman Funeral Home. Her last day will be Friday April 5. We will all miss her dearly, thank her for her dedication to St. Patrick's, and wish luck in her new position.
