Stewardship Reflection

05/19/2019

Today's readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter contain inspiring but challenging messages for us as Christian stewards.

The Gospel from John includes this well-known verse: "My children... I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

What a succinct description of a stewardship way of life. It sounds so simple. But simple does not necessarily mean easy.

How exactly is Jesus calling us to love? As He Himself loved. Jesus loved (and loves) by serving us and by making a sacrifice of His very life for us. That is a tall order.

Living a life of service and self-sacrifice is not easy because it requires us to continuously fight against our selfish inclinations. But the more we empty ourselves of "self" by serving others, the more room we make in our hearts for God pour His grace into us.

As we face the hardships that come with living as Christian stewards, we can continue to rejoice in the wonder of the Resurrection this Easter season, finding great joy in following in our Lord's own footsteps and in loving as He loves.

FATHER'S DAY NOVENA OF MASSES —

Looking for the best gift to give your Dad or Grandfather this Father's Day? Honor him with a Novena of Masses. Nine Masses will be scheduled throughout the year, said for the intention of your loved one. Father's Day Novena envelopes can be found in your contributions envelope box. Mass cards are available at the Rectory.

Fr. Curtis, Fr. Schibi, Altar Society and Parishioners;
The Lord called both of our parents to their final resting place where they are at peace together with our Holy Father. Thank you to everyone for the many prayers, beautiful mass, and wonderful dinner. The Love that we felt from everyone has given us great comfort in dealing with the loss. Blessings to all!

"I wouldn't do that for a million dollars."

One day, as St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa, 1910-1997) and her Missionaries of Charity were tending to the poorest of the poor on the streets of Calcutta, they happened across a man lying in the gutter, very near death. He was filthy, dressed in little more than a rag and flies swarmed around his body. Immediately, Mother Teresa embraced him, spoke to him softly and began to pick out the maggots that were nesting in his flesh. A passerby was repulsed by the sight of the man and exclaimed to Mother Teresa, "I wouldn't do that for a million dollars." Her response was immediate, "Neither would I!" Obviously, monetary gain did not motivate the diminutive woman known as the Saint of Calcutta; love did. In her writings, Mother Teresa frequently affirmed the motivating power of love.

Quoting Jesus in today's Gospel, she wrote, "Jesus said, 'Love one another. Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for each other.'" She continued, "We must grow in love, and to do this we must go on loving and loving and giving and giving until it hurts - the way Jesus did. Do ordinary things with extraordinary love: little things, like caring for the sick and the homeless, the lonely and the unwanted, washing and cleaning for them." Elsewhere, Mother Teresa remarked that the greatest disease in the West today is not tuberculosis, leprosy or even A.I.D.S.; it is being unwanted, uncared for, unloved. That she did her part in trying to "cure" this disease was attested in everything she did and in every word she said.

Please Pray for Our (Soon to Be) New Priest and Deacons

On May 23rd, God willing, the Bishop will ordain 3 men to the order of Deacon and on May 25th, 2 Deacons to the order of the Priesthood. Those men to be ordained Deacons are Trevor Buster, Hayden Charles (grandson of St. Patrick's parishioner Dorothy Charles), and Luke Downing. The Deacons to be ordained Priests are Deacon Drew Dellasega and Deacon Matt Siegman. I ask that you kindly remember these men in your prayers in the coming weeks as they prepare themselves for this life-changing event. May the Holy Spirit transform and give them hearts in union with Jesus Christ the High Priest that they may continue His ministry in service to the Church and the people of the Diocese of Wichita.
