Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
May 26, 2019 — Sixth Sunday of Easter

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today's Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself.

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us? Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings.

In order to keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then, our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries, will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And, our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

Please Pray: For all who gave their lives serving our country.
 Eternal rest grant unto Him Oh Lord, Charlie Bozic. Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon him, may he rest in Peace. Amen

Memorial Day

This Monday our nation will be celebrating Memorial Day, a day in which we remember and honor those men and women who died in service to our country while serving in the Armed Forces. On Memorial Day the Flag is raised briskly to the top of the staff and then solemnly lowered to the half-staff position, where it remains only until noon. It is then raised to full-staff for the remainder of the day. The half-staff position remembers the men and women who gave their lives in service of our country. At noon their memory is raised by the living, who resolve not to let their sacrifice be in vain, but to rise up in their stead and continue the fight for liberty and justice for all. Perhaps a question for reflection on this day is, do we live out our faith as a memorial day? We can see some similarities in regards to the celebration of the Mass.

The Eucharist can be considered as a memorial sacrifice, one that not only remembers, but makes present (re-presents) the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross—which is the ultimate laying down of one's life for another, namely for us. Do we let this ultimate price paid for us, given to us resonate within our hearts and minds each day? And do we daily resolve to rise up and take full advantage of this great gift by living our lives in a Christian way?

Thank you ... SPCS Teachers and Staff...
 "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy!"...says every teacher, everywhere, once school is out. Probably most of the students say this as well. The conclusion of the school year is always a little bittersweet. The building is just not the same without the students being around every day. But let us continue to pray for our students, teachers, staff and Fr. Robertson as we conclude another school year. We thank all of you for your hard work and dedication. We welcome our new staff, as we bid farewell to those who will not be returning next school year, seeking new adventures. Have a Great! Summer. God Bless you all...
