The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today, we observe the Solemnity of the of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This beautiful feast celebrates the gift of the Eucharist, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches is the source and summit of our Christian faith. "For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself" (CCC 1324).

The very word, Eucharist, means "thanksgiving" or "gratitude," and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God's blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, it is God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Today's second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the depths of love our Lord has shown us in the gift of the Eucharist, recalling Christ's words at the very first Eucharistic celebration. "The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you.'" In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very Self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift?

We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord's example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead.

Catholic Conference
 Hollywood actor and Disney star (its a secret) will speak Friday night! Keeping the faith in the world is difficult. It's even more challenging while acting in Hollywood. Do You Believe?
 The Council of Trent (1545 to 1563), whose teaching has not been abrogated by any subsequent council, declared that we must honor Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist publicly so that those who observe the faith of Catholics in the Most Holy Eucharist might be attracted to the Eucharistic Lord and believe in the Divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, present in this great Sacrament. "The Catholic Church teaches that in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of the God-man are really, truly, substantially, and abidingly present together with His soul and divinity by reason of the Transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. This takes place in the unbloody sacrifice of the Mass." We have to ask ourselves, if the way we approach the Holy Eucharist in Holy Communion or in Adoration was observed by a non-Catholic would they be moved to believe, would they be convinced in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ? And if not, then do we truly believe? Because our actions often reflect/reveal what we believe. If we truly believe then let us act in accord by showing due reverence to Jesus Christ present in the Eucharist.

Proper Disposition for Receiving Holy Communion
 In regards to receiving Holy Communion the Catechism states, "Anyone who desires to receive Christ in the Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without have received absolution in the sacrament of penance" (CCC 1415). St. Paul states, "Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself" (1 Cor. 11:27-29). Therefore, if one knowingly receives Holy Communion in a state of mortal sin, they still receive the Body, Blood, Soul & Divinity of Christ, but they do not receive His grace and they also commit a grave sin of sacrilege as St. Paul points out. Therefore, if anyone knows themselves to be in a state of grave sin, they should refrain from receiving the Eucharist until they can receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
