Stewardship Bulletin Reflection August 18, 2019

Today's readings set a high bar for us Christian stewards, reminding us that a stewardship way of life is meant be a challenging way of life.

In the second reading, from the Letter to the Hebrews, we are told to live as Christ lived. And how did Christ live? "For the sake of the joy that lay before Him He endured the cross." If we are tempted to complain about the sufferings we must endure in living as Christ's disciples, we are told, "In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood." In other words, "If you're not bleeding, what are you complaining about?" That is quite a high bar!

The Gospel reading from Luke continues this challenging theme. Our Lord tells His disciples "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing." A couple of verses later Jesus adds, "Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."

Jesus's life on this earth and the message He brought were not meant to simply make us feel good. In fact, His words can make us downright uncomfortable at times. That's because His Good News (and it is indeed good news!) Is meant to change us, to make saints of us.

The stewardship way of life sets a high bar indeed. But deeply embraced, this way of life focused on God and others will make us the saints we are called to be.

Set the World on Fire

In Rome's Via de Monserrato, just a few blocks from the Tiber River, lies the Venerable English College. Founded as a seminary in 1579, it has formed generations of English priests for ministry in England. During the 16th and 17th centuries, 44 former seminarians of the English college were martyred in England during different waves of persecution. 40 of them have been beatified or canonized by the Church.

The seminarians at the English college knew that they were preparing for martyrdom. In fact St Philip Neri, who lived near the college, used to greet the students with the phrase "Salvete Flores Martyrum – Hail, the flower of the martyrs." And the college's motto hangs above the door. It reads: "I have come to set the earth on fire," and that was a desire the students made their own. They understood that God's love passed through the Cross, and that our own love must do the same.

Therefore they were willing to witness to God's love even to point of giving up their own lives. The martyrs of the English college exemplify setting the world on fire for love of God. In what ways are we setting the world on fire for God? Do we perhaps need to first set our own hearts on fire?

St. Patricks Catholic School:
Seeking to give glory to God, St. Patrick's Catholic School, Parents, & Parish, teach Catholic values, promotes Excellence in Education, prepares students to defend their Catholic Faith, & live as Active Disciples of Christ.
