Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
 September 1, 2019

Today's readings remind us of a chief virtue that characterizes the Christian steward: humility. This is a virtue that is widely thought of as a form of self-abasement. That understanding, however, is off the mark. Humility is simply the awareness of who (and Whose) we truly are.
 On one hand, we are children of the Most High God who loved us into existence and who, by virtue of our Baptism, have the Holy Trinity dwelling within us. On the other hand, we are children who are completely dependent on God for our existence and for every breath we take.
 Our Lord speaks of true humility in our Gospel passage from Luke, telling the parable of the guests invited to a wedding banquet and instructing us not to seek a place of honor at the banquet table, lest a more distinguished guest arrives and we are asked to move to a lower place.
 Jesus has much more in mind here than an etiquette lesson. He is reminding us that all glory belongs to God. The visual image He offers in having to slink down to a lower seat at the table points out how silly we are when we forget to give God the credit for our blessings and talents.

On the other hand, when we live in humility — recognizing that all we have is a gift from God and using those gifts to serve Him and others — then God "exalts" us by filling us with even more of Himself and His grace.
 Jesus goes on to encourage us to serve and share our blessings with people facing circumstances that would make it impossible for them offer us any worldly advantage or prestige — "the poor, the crippled, the lame."
 Our attitude and the way in which we serve and share should be centered on true humility — recognizing that we are all "little" ones in the eyes of God. We are all His children; brothers and sisters invited to our Father's heavenly banquet.

Young Man on a Train
 A young man entered the coach of a train in a small university town in France. The ink was scarcely dry on his newly acquired diploma. As the train sped off for Paris, he took his seat in the rear of the coach near an elderly gentleman who seemed to be dozing. As the train suddenly lurched, a string of rosary beads fell from his hand. The young man picked up the rosary and handed it to the elderly gentleman with the remark, "I presume you are praying, sir?" "You are right. I was praying." "I am surprised," said the young fellow, "that in this day and age there is someone who is still so benighted and superstitious.
 Our professors at the university do not believe in such things," and he proceeded to "enlighten" his elderly fellow-passenger. The old man expressed surprise and amazement. "Yes," continued the young man, "today enlightened people don't believe in such nonsense." "You don't say!" replied the old man. "Yes, sir, and if you wish, I can send you some illuminating books." "Very well," said the old man, preparing to leave as the train came to a stop. "You may send them to this address." He handed the young man a card, which read: Louis Pasteur, Director of the Institute of Scientific Research, Paris.

"Walk with your feet on Earth, but in your heart be in Heaven."
