FIRST FRIDAY is not a universal devotion at every Catholic parish, and some parents had asked for more information. It has been emphasized at St. Patrick's for quite some time. The middle schoolers wear their dress uniform, everyone attends Mass, prays the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Eucharistic Adoration and of course eats First Friday Cookies. In short, the First Friday of each month is set apart to focus on Jesus' Sacred Heart. Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary many times in the late 1600's and taught her about His Sacred Heart. The devotions were approved as genuine in the mid 1700's. But it wasn't until Fr. Mateo traveled the world in the early 1900's that the devotion really gained popularity. Margaret Mary wasn't even canonized a saint until 1920. Listed here are the 12 things Jesus promised to people who practice this devotion:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their homes.
3. I will comfort them in all their afflictions.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.
5. I will bestow abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.
6. Sinners will find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection.
9. I will bless every place in which an image of my Heart is exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in my Heart.
12. I promise you in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays in nine consecutive months the grace of final perseverance; they shall not die in my disgrace, nor without receiving their sacraments. My divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment.
