Halloween is for real probably my all-time favorite holiday. Yes, others may be more important (Christmas and Easter). But the Eve of All Saints has always been the most fun for me. There is a special kind of fellowship, creativity, and community spirit present for Halloween.

ALL SAINTS DAY is this Friday. Mass times are available Thursday (5:30pm) and Friday (8am & 5:30pm). Also, the Catholic Church focuses on the Saints in Heaven and Souls in Purgatory all November, hence All Souls Day November 2. So Mrs. Nash and the 7th & 8th Graders will host the annual All Saints Wax Museum, Thursday Nov. 21, 1:30-3pm in the Parish Hall. Parishioners, parents, families are welcome to come visit St. John Paul II, St. Bernadette, and more!!!!

Family Engagement Updates:

- 385 hours of service recorded by...
- 19 different families
- 274 was the 'lottery number'
- Congrats Nikkii & Scott Rosenstiel !!!!! lottery winners for the First Quarter, they get a free $125 Enrollment Fee to use for the 2020-21 school year!!!
- Hours recorded 1st quarter will roll over for the 2nd quarter lottery

Basketball Season is here!!

The Middle School boys and girls both began practice Monday. Little League sign-ups are due Oct 30th. Coaches should be in contact soon concerning the little league tournaments. Regular league schedules are still being finalized by the league. But all info that is currently available (game/practice times) is posted on the school website calendar for grades 3-8.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLE SALE Wed Dec, 4 Volunteer sign-ups will be posted in the main entrance. This is an annual event where students & families may purchase religious items they may not have access to otherwise. Small & large items available that can be great for Christmas presents. Thank you Tarah Snider & Elaine Shultz for getting everything ready & chairing this event again this year.
