Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
 January 24, 2021 —
 Third Sunday of Ordinary time

Today's readings call us to be decisive in our faith. Simon, Andrew, James and John demonstrate this decision for us in their response to Christ's calling, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." In both instances, the men immediately abandoned what was before them and followed Christ.

Imagine if Simon and Andrew looked at their Savior and said, "Thanks for the offer, but we will finish up fishing and meet you later." That is no way a disciple should respond to Christ's call. Yet, that is how we often respond to Jesus' offer to us, "Come after me." We can easily fall into the misconception that we have plenty of time to live active discipleship. But as faithful stewards of our time, we must change our ways and immediately follow Christ more intentionally, because Christ is calling us to act now. These men became members of Jesus' twelve apostles. They surrendered their entire lives to follow Christ. We, too, are called to surrender our lives to the Lord so that He may work through us. We might think, "God isn't calling me." But indeed, He is. Just as He called four ordinary fishermen, He is calling each one of us. Renewing and reevaluating what God might be asking of us throughout our lives is a key component of our stewardship journey.

As we settle into this New Year, let us ponder the ways we can renew our commitment to God. Let us ask ourselves: what are we casting our nets for? And are we willing to leave it behind for something much greater? And if not now, when?

Defend The Unborn.

The Bible in a Year

In The Bible in a Year podcast, Fr. Mike Schmitz walks you through the entire Bible in 365 episodes, providing commentary, reflection, and prayer along the way. Unlike any other Bible podcast, Ascension's Bible in a Year podcast follows a reading plan inspired by The Great Adventure Bible Timeline, a ground-breaking approach to understanding salvation history developed by renowned Catholic Bible scholar Jeff Cavins. With this podcast, you won't just read the Bible in a year...you'll finally understand how all the pieces of the Bible fit together to tell an amazing story that continues in your life today! Listen and...

- 1) Read the ENTIRE Bible.
- 2) Feel more confident about your understanding of Scripture.
- 3) Experience the transformative power of God's Word in your daily life.
- 4) Start seeing the world through the lens of Scripture. Each 20-25 minute episode includes: Two to three scripture readings, a reflection from Fr. Mike Schmitz, and a guided prayer to help you hear God's voice in his Word. And although we are already several weeks into the new year the previous episodes are maintained online, so that you can quickly catch up.

Fishers of Men

We may ask, is there some meaning in the fact that fishermen were among Jesus' first and most prominent disciples? Perhaps so. Consider that fishermen have some important qualities that are helpful for discipleship: 1) Patient: Fishermen often need to wait for many hours, even days, for a catch. Disciples need great patience as do evangelizers. 2) Professional: Fishermen need to spend time learning about the types and behaviors of fish, learning to observe the water and navigate, learning the right time of day and the right season to fish. They need to know the right bait, the proper use of the net. All of these traits are good for disciples and are especially helpful in evangelization, which is "job one" for the disciple. Through growing in practical knowledge, we come to know our faith and learn effective ways to be fishers of men. 3) Purposeful: When fishermen are out fishing, they are entirely focused on their endeavor. That's all they do; everything is centered on the main task. They are single-minded. Disciples surely need more of this attitude. Every disciple needs to be more single-minded. 4) Pursuing: Note that they simply go to the fish, they don't wait for the fish to come to them. The key word for disciples and evangelizers is "Go." 5) Partnered: Fishermen work in teams. Thus Jesus sends disciples out, two by two. 6) Persistent: If fishermen don't make a catch today, they're back out tomorrow. Disciples surely need to persist, both in their own journey and in making disciples of others. So let us strive to answer the call to be fishers of men by perfecting these traits in our own lives as disciples of Jesus.
