Stewardship Reflection - June 30th, 2021
The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Spirit of Adoption

Dt 4: 32-34, 39-40 / Rom 8: 14-17 / Mt 28: 16-20

A few weeks ago, Jesus told us that we are no longer slaves, but friends. Today, He goes one step farther and says we do not have a spirit of slavery, but a Spirit of adoption. We have been chosen and intentionally brought into the love of the Holy Trinity! We are children of God and joint heirs with Christ, and that fact alone should revolutionize our discipleship. It should fill us with the faith and encouragement we need to do the hard work. Paul reminds us that we may have to "suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him." The journey will not always be easy, but when we look to Jesus as the model for loving and serving the Father, we can't go wrong. When we look to the Father as the model for mercy and compassion, we can't go wrong. When we allow the Spirit to guide our steps, we can't go wrong. Your FIAT is a yes to each person of the Holy Trinity!

Memorial Day

This Monday our nation will be celebrating Memorial Day, a day in which we remember and honor those men and women who died in service to our country while serving in the Armed Forces. On Memorial Day the Flag is raised briskly to the top of the staff and then solemnly lowered to the half-staff position, where it remains only until noon. It is then raised to full-staff for the remainder of the day. The half-staff position remembers the men and women who gave their lives in service of our country. At noon their memory is raised by the living, who resolve not to let their sacrifice be in vain, but to rise up in their stead and continue the fight for liberty and justice for all. Perhaps a question for reflection on this day is, do we live out our faith as a memorial day? We can see some similarities in regards to the celebration of the Mass. The Eucharist can be considered as a memorial sacrifice, one that not only remembers, but makes present (re-presents) the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross—which is the ultimate laying down of one's life for another, namely for us. Do we let this ultimate price paid for us, given to us resonate within our hearts and minds each day? And do we daily resolve to rise up and take full advantage of this great gift by living our lives in a Christian way?

Parish Registration - Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Registration is the official way we join our parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. Your registration affects our parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to our church, what benefits and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled. Registration shows you belong. Most importantly, it lets our parish count on you, to call on you to assist in our mission. Registering in our parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of our parish"

St. Joseph: Silence
(Lover of Poverty)

Actions speak louder than words. This maxim certainly applies to St. Joseph. There are no recorded words of St. Joseph found in the Gospels and, after recounting the events surrounding Christ's birth and his finding in the temple, St. Joseph disappears. But his actions tells us about his character, and his silence stands as his profound witness. The silence of St. Joseph was one of faith; he embraced the seemingly impossible. It was one of trustworthiness; he diligently protected the mysteries of the Incarnation and the Divine Maternity. It was one of humility; he sought no praise or admiration though he was the chosen husband of the Immaculate Virgin and the earthly father of the Son of God. His silence was one of fidelity to the will of God; he willingly disappeared into the mission God gave him, unnoticed in the ordinary circumstances of day-to-day life. His was a silence full of patience; in his trials he sought consolation only from God and endured all for the sake of Jesus and Mary. St. Joseph's quiet example shows us the importance of honest and sincere action in the face of the temptation to rely on empty, prideful, self-promoting, attention-seeking words. Besides being a man of silence, St. Joseph was a lover of poverty. St. Joseph lived by his trade, having no other resources. The Holy family was poor, and they lived in Nazareth, the poorest and most despised of cities.

St. Joseph shows us that true happiness is not to be found in material possessions, good as they may be. Things can easily distract us from what is truly important. St. Joseph's example shows that when emptied of material possessions - and even the attachment to them - we are better able to hear the voice of God and to faithfully fulfill our vocation in life. There is a deeper poverty than material poverty. Do we recognize our spiritual poverty? We struggle with sin, with disbelief, with discouragement, with inconstancy, with selfishness. St. Joseph shows us there's more. We are all spiritually poor, but we are saved by Love! We are invited to experience God's profound gift of mercy. In letting go, in surrendering self, we become poor in a fantastic new way. Our hearts are freed! Our heart is set free of our ego, our pride, our desire to control, our "me-first" tendencies. Our hearts become empty and available to be filled by God! We are better able to establish and grow in our relationship with Him. We are better able to live out the mission He has given each of us, in the way He wills. How can I become a lover of poverty, how can I imitate St. Joseph's example of silence - in body, in mind, and in spirit? Silent St. Joseph, lover of poverty, pray for me.

Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.
