Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
 SEPTEMBER 12, 2021 —

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus addresses His disciples saying, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." We are Jesus' disciples, and He is speaking those same words to us here and now.

Living a life of discipleship is not always easy. It requires us to be imitators of Christ — who suffered, died, and rose from the dead out of total love for each one of us. This means we are called to share in Christ's sufferings by taking up our cross and following Him daily.

But what does this look like in our day-to-day lives? We can start by making a firm resolution to follow Christ today, here and now, and renewing that resolution each day when we rise. This requires time with Him each day — speaking and listening.

We should also strive to pick up our crosses each day with Christ by our side. Our cross might be suffering from an illness, fighting an addiction, a day of screaming kids, or a period where things just don't seem to go our way. Instead of avoiding these sufferings or complaining about them, we are called to carry them with Christ, allowing Him to transform us through them.

If we live life constantly focused on us, we will ultimately lose ourselves, but if we surrender our lives for Christ and His mission, we will gain eternal life and become more alive than we could have ever imagined, "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." This takes daily commitment and requires endurance in our faith, which can only be done through active discipleship.

CLASSROOM WISH LIST DRIVE

St. Patrick Catholic School Council is coordinating a CLASSROOM WISH LIST DRIVE again this year for the wonderful teachers and staff of St. Patrick Catholic School. The staff put in great time and personal resources year round to ensure our students are receiving an exceptional Christ-centered education, while always going above and beyond for each of them. If you want to show support for these amazing teachers, please consider making a WISH-LIST donation. The teachers have been asked to create a "Classroom Wish-List" of items that would be useful in their classrooms via Amazon. You can view the links on the school Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/stpatricksparsons>. Each Teacher/Staff is listed in the comments section of the regarding post with their personal links. You can shop the lists there. And remember when shopping Amazon, be sure to shop through smile.amazon.com and select St. Patrick Catholic School as the designated non-profit recipient for an additional kick-back to the school! On behalf of the School Council, we appreciate your support! God Bless!

Our Lady of La Salette

Remember, dear Lady of La Salette, true Mother of Sorrows, the tears which thou didst shed for me on Calvary; be mindful also of the unceasing care which thou dost exercise to shield me from the justice of God; and consider whether thou canst now abandon thy child, for whom thou hast done so much. Inspired by this consoling thought, I come to cast myself at thy feet, in spite of my infidelity and ingratitude. Reject not my prayer, O Virgin of reconciliation, convert me, obtain for me the grace to love Jesus Christ above all things and to console thee too by living a holy life, in order that one day I may be able to see thee in Heaven. Amen.

Please Pray for: Mike Jackson and Mark Harper

Who Is Jesus?

In his teens, C.S. Lewis was a professed agnostic. He was influenced in his conversion to Christianity by G.K. Chesterton's book, "The Everlasting Man", and by two of his Christian friends. After his conversion, he wrote a number of books defending Christianity. During the Second World War in his famous BBC radio talk, Mere Christianity, he said, "I am trying to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about Him: 'I'm ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept his claim to be God.' That is the one thing we must not say. A man who is merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic, on the level with a man who says he is a poached egg, or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse." If we accept Jesus as a moral teacher, then we must necessarily accept Him as God, for great moral teachers do not tell lies.

Feasibility Study Announcement

St. Patrick Catholic Church has contracted with Betty Johnson & Associates to conduct a feasibility study. The purpose of the study is to determine how best to implement a successful capital campaign to repair our church. These repairs will provide us a safe and restored worship space for all of us to continue our faith journey. Initially we have selected a sampling of our church members to personally participate in the study. If you receive a letter, please respond at your earliest convenience. Your input is valuable and important as we go forward. This is an important project for St. Patrick and we look forward to everyone's input and participation. In a few weeks we will provide more information on how the remainder of the membership will be asked to participate.

Grandparents Day - September 12th

Grandparents are a universally recognised social category. There is a myth about being a grandparent that says your job is to undermine the parents, to spoil the kids rotten, or even to fill them up with sugar and then give them back to their parents. While some of these might be perks, by no means is what it's like to be a grandparent. Being a grandparent is the best job in the world... In the eyes of your grandchildren, you are nothing short of exalted. You can make a difference in your grandchildren's lives by leading by example, such as passing on our faith and keeping prayer at the heart of the family. You are at the top of your grandkids' Favorite People List..Santa Claus and YOU! You tell the best stories, make the best meals, deliver the best hugs, and rarely lose your temper. When you dispense your wisdom, your grandkids carefully heed your words, rather than rolling their eyes. The kids don't misbehave (much) with you, because they know trying to pull off those antics is futile. You are the primo VIP as far as they are concerned. Americanliving
