Thank you, Vince & Mary Schibi - Parcom
Some people make choices that change lives. Thank you for being one of them. Your donation will help change the lives of our students, which in turn will benefit our community and parish today, tomorrow and for years to come. Tremendous support from generous donors like you allows St. Patrick School to continue our commitment of nurturing hearts, inspiring minds, and igniting spirits. From all of us at St. Patrick's school, thank you again for your support and generosity.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
SEPTEMBER 19, 2021 —
TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our readings today bring to light the daily struggle between good and evil and how we can combat this struggle through gratitude. In our Gospel, we see an example of how surrendering to our passions negatively affects us. Jesus was with His disciples when they began to argue amongst themselves as to who was the greatest in the group. If we look at our own lives, we might find many instances where we fall into the same tendencies — we constantly compare ourselves to others, out of pride we feel the need to point out another's faults or choose to fight back in an argument. We know we should act one way but choose another. When Jesus hears what the apostles are discussing, He has them focus on a child. "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." If we reflect on the moment someone receives a child, oftentimes their hearts are overwhelmed with joy and gratitude for this gift. There is no jealousy or anger, just thanksgiving, and appreciation. The apostles are busy bickering about who was the best. Their vision was clouded, and they could not even stop and be grateful for the gift to be so close to our Savior and that they were chosen to be His closest followers. When we are caught in the raging war of jealousy, fighting, and pride, and begin to become enslaved to our passions we are ultimately being ungrateful for what we have been given. We overlook the blessing God has given us and the gifts and talents He has entrusted to us. Today, let us recall that we have an infinitely loving God who cares deeply for us. Consider all that He has blessed you with, and how you can use those blessings for His glory.

The Twelve Step Journey -
A Spiritual Journey Program which begins Oct. 7, 2021
The Twelve Steps - A Spiritual Journey is a program of healing and renewal for adults who grew up in alcoholic or dysfunctional families - sometime known as "Adult Children". The meetings for this seven -month Program have been held at the Catholic Spiritual Life Center for over twenty - five years. For the current year, the Program meetings will be held using an on-line Zoom meeting format. With this change, the meetings are available to people throughout the Diocese. If you have any questions or need additional information concerning the Program, please feel free to call: 316-648-5610 Robert Tarman
I have a few brochures in the Parish Office.

St. Vincent de Paul is asking for donations of large paper grocery bags with handles (Braum's), and plastic grocery bags, they can be dropped off at St. Vincent's weekdays from 10am-12pm and 2-4pm. or Saturdays 10am-12pm.

Knights of Columbus: September 25th
4th Degree Knights of Columbus members will meet at 6:30pm September 25th, at Chinese Chef. It's been awhile and we have a lot to catch up on. See ya there.

Please Pray for: Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him oh Lord, Robert K. Allen father to Bobbie Wiltse (Charles). Let Perpetual Light shine Upon Him, May He Rest in Peace.

Baby, Tell Me What God Feels Like
Soon after the birth of her brother, four-year-old Sachi began to ask her parents to leave her alone with the new baby. Worried that she might feel jealous and want to hit and shake the newborn, her parents said no. But the little girl's pleas to be left alone with her brother became more urgent, and since she treated the baby lovingly and gently, her parents decided to allow it. Delighted, Sachi went into the baby's room and closed the door, but it opened slightly, allowing her curious parents to peek in and listen. They watched as their daughter put her face close to her baby brother's and whisper, "Baby, tell me what God feels like. I'm starting to forget." The innocence of this little four-year-old-girl is disarming, particularly to adults grown crusty and cynical with age. When Jesus recommended that the apostles emulate the little child set in their midst, Jesus reminded them of the innocence that they had long since outgrown. Indeed, their innocence had been replaced by ambition as to who was most important among them. By offering the example of the child and by calling them to be the servants of all, Jesus challenged them to rethink their attitude toward Him, toward God and toward one another. Those who would rank first among them as leader must become the least among them.

Fr. Emil Kapaun Vigil & Mass of Christian Burial
EWTN will be broadcasting the Vigil and Funeral Mass for Servant of God Fr. Emil Kapaun. The Vigil will be on Tuesday, September 28th at 7pm and the Funeral Mass will be Wednesday, September 29th at 10:30am. Following the Mass the remains of Fr. Emil Kapaun will be taken the Cathedral and entombed in an altar-mausoleum, to serve as a place of pilgrimage for the faithful of the Church. During this time let us give thanks and praise to God that the remains of Fr. Kapaun have returned home to the Diocese from which he came and that he may soon be lifted up as a Saint of the Church. Fr. Emil Kapaun, pray for us. (Note: if you do not have access to EWTN, it will also be live-streamed via the Diocese of Wichita Youtube page.)

Feasibility Study Announcement
St. Patrick Catholic Church has contracted with Betty Johnson & Associates to conduct a feasibility study. The purpose of the study is to determine how best to implement a successful capital campaign to repair our church. These repairs will provide us a safe and restored worship space for all of us to continue our faith journey. Initially we have selected a sampling of our church members to personally participate in the study. If you receive a letter, please respond at your earliest convenience. Your input is valuable and important as we go forward. This is an important project for St. Patrick and we look forward to everyone's input and participation. In a few weeks we will provide more information on how the remainder of the membership will be asked to participate.

2021 - The Year of St. Joseph
We can turn to Joseph. He is always there to help, no matter what we experience as part of the human condition or our own weakness. Joseph knows what it's like to face things beyond our control. He knows the anxiety that comes with it. Joseph understands the temptation to give in to anger, frustration, and impatience. Ask him to help you bear sickness, and every other trial, with humility and faith — and patience!
