Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
 04/17/2022

Easter Sunday The Resurrection of the Lord
 The Mass of Easter Day
 Poor Peter. What a week. Followed Jesus for three years. Chased him across a sea and sank. Gave up his fishing gig just when he caught the motherload. Fell asleep in Gethsemane. Said goodbye to Jesus by pretending he didn't even know him, not once, but three times.
 Watches Jesus die, be buried and then disappear. Poor Peter. Yet, who does Mary of Magdala run to when she finds the tomb empty, Peter.
 Despite all of Peter's frailties and inadequacies, Peter is the go-to guy. Why? Apparently, the other disciples saw what Jesus saw, a rock.
 Not the rock that guarded an empty tomb, but the rock that would guard and defend the truth, even unto death. What kind of rocks are we? As missionary disciples we aren't idle stones guarding empty tombs, but Easter rocks, fully alive sent to be witnesses of the amazing Good News of the Gospel!
 Saint Peter—you rock!

Easter Traditions.
 Irish Easter traditions can be witnessed every day of the year; the custom of marking home-made bread with a cross persists all over Ireland.
 A blessed palm would be hung up in the house; one would be put out in the barn so that the animals could share in the blessing. And another would be set aside to be used as a sprinkler for Holy Water.

The Mass of Many Names....
 Holy Saturday - Easter Vigil Mass - The Mass of Light
 The Easter Vigil Mass always takes place after nightfall. Our church lies in darkness and waiting. The light of Christ has gone out of the world and darkness will have covered the earth where ever the Easter Vigil Mass takes place. A match will be struck in the darkness and the Easter fires will be lit outside of the church, representing Christ's return from the tomb.
 Jesus Christ is the light that dispels the darkness of our world.

 Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!!

A Real Easter Egg
 A small chick begins the long journey to birth. The not-yet-a-bird weighs little more than air; its beak and claws are barely pin pricks. The bird-to-be is in its own little world: protected by the rigid shell, warmed by the mother hen's body, nourished by the nutrients within the egg's membrane. But then the chick begins the work of life.
 Over several days the chick keeps picking and picking until it can break out from its narrow world — and into an incomparably wider one. But for this to happen, the egg has to go to pieces. New life demands shattering the old. — That is the real Easter egg. Not a complete egg dyed and painted with so many designs and colors. Not an egg that has been hardboiled, impossible to shatter. Not an egg made of chocolate. The real Easter egg is shattered and destroyed. The real Easter egg exists in broken pieces.
 The real Easter egg is cracked and opened, yielding new life that has moved out to live in the open. For centuries, the world has marked the Resurrection of the Lord with eggs. But the Easter meaning of the egg is found in the struggle of the chick to free itself from its confines so as to move into much bigger world beyond it.
 We struggle to break out of a world that we perceive is going to pieces; we pick away at an existence that leaves us dissatisfied and unfulfilled. The promise of the Easter Christ is that we can break out of our self-contained little worlds and move into a world where peace and justice reign, a world illuminated by hope and warmed by love, a world that extends beyond time and place into the forever of God's dwelling place.

Preserving Our Heritage, Our Faith, and Our Future
 The Capital Campaign Committee is calling fellow parishioners to be callers to recruit additional volunteers for the campaign. If you get a call - please say yes and help if at all possible — it is appreciated!
 If you have not received a call, please call the parish office and let them know you will help. This volunteer role consists of calling an assigned list of parishioners to recruit home visitors. A short training to provide information, lists, and answer questions will be held for those agreeing to volunteer for this important role, that will only take a few hours of your time. Thank you!
 Work will begin soon on our church, if you have not watched the video on our website, we encourage you to take some time and learn what and how the repairs will occur. Please keep the crews of Dondlinger Construction in your prayers as they work to save our church.

Joyous Time of Year
 May the glory and the promise of this joyous time of year bring peace and happiness to you and those you hold most dear.
 And may Christ, Our Risen Saviour, always be there by your side to bless you most abundantly and be your loving guide.
