Thank you...
 To all the volunteers, who give their time and talents to decorate the altar, plant these beautiful flowers, mow and manicure our church yard, school and lots. All those who volunteered to clean the school, and to all the unseen volunteers who always get things done, when needed. To the crews who set up our church, and those young men who are serving Mass, and all those serving a ministry every weekend, we are Blessed to have each and every one of you. God Bless you all...

Thank you...
 To Mrs. Carson and all the teachers and staff at St. Patrick Catholic School. This has been quite the school year, and you all once again stepped up and met every challenge and obstacle that was thrown at you, with grace and understanding as usual. We are beyond Blessed to have each and everyone of you. Have a Great summer vacation, and God Bless you all.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection
 May 22nd, 2022 — Sixth Sunday of Easter

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today's Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself.

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us? Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings.

To keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make the study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

Lovely Lady Dressed in Blue -
 Lovely Lady dressed in blue, teach me how to pray
 God was just your little boy tell me what to say.
 Did you lift him up sometimes, gently on your knee?
 Did you sing to him the way mother does to me?
 Did you hold his hand at night, and did you ever try telling him stories of the world, oh, and did he cry?
 Do you really think he cares of I tell him things?
 Little things that happen and do the angels wings make a noise
 Can he hear me if I speak low, does he understand me now
 Tell me for you know.
 Lovely lady dressed in blue teach me how to pray
 God was just your little boy and you know the way.
(Written by Mary Dawn Trayer)
 May our holy patron, St. Patrick, intercede for us.
 Our Lady, Mother of God, pray for us.

Oceans and Trees Give Secret to Peace

We have all heard the proverb, "still waters run deep". It's true for lakes and oceans, but it's also true for the spiritual life. The deeper our friendship with Christ, the more stable our lives become.

Even when storms come and make waves on the surface of the ocean, the depths remain calm. Christ wants us to learn to live a deep spiritual life, so that we can experience profound interior peace. There is a similar analogy with trees. Pine trees are notoriously unstable. This is because their roots spread out horizontally, just barely under the surface of the ground. This type of root system helps pine trees survive in their native higher elevations, where there is only a thin layer of soil over the rocky ground. But it makes the trees vulnerable.

When high winds blow or storms break, they are easily uprooted. Oak trees, on the other hand, are famous for their sturdiness. They stand tall and strong while storms and wind wreak havoc with the other trees around them. White Oak trees consistently resist even tornados. Why? Their root system is different.

They put down a deep tap root - a single, thick root that goes straight down into the soil and serves as an anchor. If you plant a White Oak tree acorn, it will grow its tap root down into the soil for almost an entire year before you see even a tiny sprout on the surface.

When our lives are deeply grounded in the soil of Christ's love, mercy, and mission, they become strong and fruitful. The tap root of friendship with Christ brings interior peace even in the midst of life's biggest storms.

Preserving Our Heritage, Our Faith, and Our Future
Tuesday, May 31, a brief training will be held at 6:30 and 7:30 for all who have volunteered to be a home visitor you only need to attend one of the sessions. Packets will be available with your home visit assignments. Thank you to all the parishioners who recruited home visitors and to the parishioners who said yes to be a home visitor. We had a great response - this is important to the success of campaign and it is greatly appreciated!
Campaign Sunday is June 5th and we ask that you welcome these visitors and the opportunity to be a part of a major project for our parish. Please continue to pray for the success of the capital campaign for our parish and its future. Together we will enhance St. Patricks, where we gather as a community to share and grow our faith.
