Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

September 25, 2022 —

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We have all been given great power by God in the form of Time, Talents, and Treasure. Today's readings remind us that this power is meant to be used for great good. And, that failure to do so has eternal consequences.

We see the urgency for us to put our powers to good use in today's Gospel passage from Luke. Our Lord tells the rather chilling parable of the rich man who ignored poor Lazarus during their lifetimes. At the moment of the rich man's death, he goes down to the netherworld while Lazarus is taken to the eternal joy and comfort in the bosom of Abraham. The rich man keenly regrets his indifference towards the needs of Lazarus, but it is too late for regret. His choices have played out and now the rich man will face the consequences of his failure to use the gifts God gave him.

Pursuit of God's kingdom and care for the poor are not trifling matters. Our Lord makes this clear to us over and over in the Scriptures and the constant teachings of our 2,000-year-old Church. We are free to ignore these teachings and live instead for ourselves. But there will be tragic results for us in the end. And, because we are made for eternity, living selfishly on this earth doesn't really bring us true happiness anyway.

So how can we use our great powers for great good? By embracing a stewardship way of life. By putting God first in all areas of our lives — in the way we spend our time, the ways we share our talents, the ways we give of our financial resources. Stewardship living calls us out of our comfort zone and into commitment to the Lord and the things that matter to Him.

I Could Have Done So Much More

In 1993, Steven Spielberg came out with a movie called Schindler's List. It's a true story of a rather mediocre Catholic businessman, Oskar Schindler, who lived in Poland during World War II. When the war started, he saw it as an opportunity to make money. He made friends with some of the German officials and worked out a deal with them to use Jewish prisoners as free labor for his amunitions factory. Since he didn't have to pay his workers, he was able to rake in a handsome profit. But little by little his eyes opened to the horrors of the Nazi regime. His heart changed, and he started using his factories and his connections with German officers to save his Jewish workers from the Holocaust. He used the money he had made during the early part of the war to "buy" more and more Jewish workers, just so he could save their lives. By the end of the war he was as broke as he had been at the beginning, but he had managed to save hundreds of Jews from being massacred. In the last scene of the movie, the Germans are fleeing as allied troops approach the town where the factory is located. We see Schindler surrounded by the workers whom he had saved, and they are thanking him. But then Schindler starts to cry. He looks around at the faces of the people he saved, and he tells them, "I could have done so much more." He holds up his gold watch, and he says, "This could have bought someone's freedom." He cries out that if he had started sooner he could have saved twice as many. Every face he sees makes him think of another face that he could have saved if he had been less self-centered. He is completely distraught. Schindler had experienced firsthand the destructive power of the sin of omission

SEK Serra will meet on October 6th from 6-7 at St Francis de Hieronymo in St Paul, KS.

Fr Chris Rumback will talk about the Camino de Santiago that he took this past summer. We will also discuss the care packages for the seminarians. As well as hosting a vocations fair and an 8th grade retreat. Everyone is invited. For more information please contact Angela Vowell at 620-870-9580 or email: sekserraclub@gmail.com

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY—"Behold: A Guided Advent Journal for Prayer and Meditation" by Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT—In this beautiful guided journal for prayer and meditation, Sr. Miriam will walk with you as you explore familial wounds with the help of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Behold features stunning original art by Josiah Henley of Heart of IESVS. Each week of Behold will focus on a different theme that you can connect to your life in a practical way:

Week one: Motherhood; Week two: Fatherhood;
Week three: Childhood; Week four: Stable.

Each day you will journey deeper into the meaning of Advent with a meditation, reflection questions, a prayer, and journaling space. We will meet Monday evenings at 8pm at John Schibi's Office building. If there is a need for more than one meeting time, we will make that work, too! Books will be around $12. Please contact Jamie Stice at (620) 249-1410 by Monday, October 17th if you're interested in the study.

Capital Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,
By your Divine Will and Providence,
you established our parish under the patronage of St. Patrick 150 years ago.
Throughout these years you have provided for and guided our parish with your Grace in every moment of need.
With confidence we call upon your Divine Assistance once again, to guide us and lead us, to give us generous hearts open to Your Will, as we work to repair our Church.
So that through our efforts and your Grace
we may preserve our heritage, strengthen our faith, and our future, providing a holy place for generations to come to encounter and grow in the faith and love of Jesus Christ.
We ask this, and all things, through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
