October 2, 2022 —
 Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards. Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest. But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God. The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility. The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality.

In October, the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is designated as Respect Life Sunday.

Life Chain Sunday

Just Do It
 The sales manager of a large Real Estate firm was interviewing an applicant for a sales job. "Why have you chosen this career?" he asked. "I dream of making a million dollars in Real Estate, like my father," the young man replied. "Your father made a million dollars in Real Estate?" asked the impressed sales manager. "No," replied the young man. "but he always dreamed of it." Have you ever noticed that the Bible never mentions the dreams of the Apostles? It doesn't even mention the ideas of the Apostles. However, it devotes an entire book to the Acts of the Apostles. Some of the most impressive commercials on television have been the Nike shoe commercials with the theme, "Just do it." These commercials have normally featured famous athletes, such as Bo Jackson, to get their message across. These commercials carry a good message for all of us, not just for people who are physically challenged. However, if the people at Nike think they invented the phrase, "Just do it," they might be surprised to find that they are a few thousand years late. In Ezra 10:4 we read, "Be of good courage and do it." (Or, we could translate it, "Just do it.") This is, in effect, the answer Jesus gave his disciples when they asked him to increase their Faith. He said, "Just do it," to paraphrase him in today's language. This is a curious answer to a request for more Faith. "Just do it."

SEK Serra will meet on October 6th from 6-7 at St Francis de Hieronymo in St Paul, KS.
 Fr Chris Rumback will talk about the Camino de Santiago that he took this past summer. We will also discuss the care packages for the seminarians. As well as hosting a vocations fair and an 8th grade retreat. Everyone is invited. For more information please contact Angela Vowell at 620-870-9580 or email: sekseraclub@gmail.com

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY—
 "Behold: A Guided Advent Journal for Prayer and Meditation" by Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT—
 In this beautiful guided journal for prayer and meditation, Sr. Miriam will walk with you as you explore familial wounds with the help of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Behold features stunning original art by Josiah Henley of Heart of IESVS. Each week of Behold will focus on a different theme that you can connect to your life in a practical way:
Week one: Motherhood;
Week two: Fatherhood;
Week three: Childhood;
Week four: Stable.
 Each day you will journey deeper into the meaning of Advent with a meditation, reflection questions, a prayer, and journaling space. We will meet Monday evenings at 8pm at John Schibi's Office building. If there is a need for more than one meeting time, we will make that work, too! Books will be around $12. Please contact Jamie Stice at (620) 249-1410

Preserving our Heritage
St. Patrick
Strengthening our Faith and our Tradition

Capital Campaign Prayer
Heavenly Father,
By your Divine Will and Providence,
you established our parish under the patronage of St. Patrick 150 years ago.
Throughout these years you have provided for and guided our parish with your Grace in every moment of need.
With confidence we call upon your Divine Assistance once again, to guide us and lead us, to give us generous hearts open to Your Will, as we work to repair our Church.
So that through our efforts and your Grace we may preserve our heritage, strengthen our faith, and our future, providing a holy place for generations to come to encounter and grow in the faith and love of Jesus Christ.
We ask: this, and all things, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
