Stewardship Reflection
 November 6, 2022 –
 Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings challenge us to focus on the "why" of stewardship. Why embrace this challenging way of life when it seems hard enough just to pay the bills, take care of our loved ones, meet the demands of our jobs, and fall into bed at the end of each full day? Because this life is not all there is. We were made for more — for eternal happiness in union with God. While we cannot earn our way into Heaven, what we do now with the life God has given us has eternal consequences. Stewardship living helps us to keep focused on our hoped-for destination in the choices we make each day.

In our Gospel passage from Luke, Christ reminds us very clearly that we were made for more than just this life and that our choices in this life have eternal consequences. In this passage, our Lord corrects some Saducees for their mistaken notion that there is no resurrection. He instructs that "those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead...can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise.

Stewardship is not ultimately about the amount or kind of time, talent, and treasure we offer. It is about the conviction that everything we have is a gift from our loving God whom we can never truly repay and with whom we want to live forever. Revisiting these three aspects of our lives regularly, prayerfully discerning the best use of our gifts, and putting this down in writing clarifies and strengthens our conviction to put God first. It is a clear guide and a powerful aid in living out this conviction in concrete ways day-by-day.

That is the "why" of stewardship.

Mary Our Mother, Pray For Us..

Please Pray for: All Our Veterans
 Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him Oh Lord Joe Ponce, husband to Julia and brother to Lupe. Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon Him, May He Rest In Peace.

Prayer for Veterans
 Heavenly Father, we ask you to look down upon our brothers and sisters in arms, and bless them as they stand ready to defend us from the agents of evil. For those who are preparing and training to serve, we ask you to make them strong and resolute in their calling, so that in the hour of need they will serve ably and honorably. For those who serve, we ask you to send blessings of comfort and encouragement. May they know they are not forgotten, either by you or their loved ones at home. For those who experience the horrors of war, we most fervently beseech you, O Lord, to place your hand upon their hearts and steady them in battle. Be their shield and bulwark in battle. For those who have returned from service, we ask your special intercession. In returning home, many of your sons and daughters face new battles with enemies, lethal as bullets. Embrace these children of discord, and hold them tightly to your bosom, Lord, so they may know your comfort in their darkest moments. Restore sight to their eyes, and shine radiant upon their faces, that they may walk not in the shadows which ensnare, but in the light of your glory. For our wounded veterans, who bear scars in their hearts, minds, and bodies, we ask your blessing. Lord, cherish this wounded legion, invited to share in the suffering of Christ. May they see Christ though their pain, and find hope in His promises. We await the day you make their bodies and their hearts whole once again. For those who have left their uniform hanging in the past, who move with difficulty, who reflect with a distant gaze upon times better unknown, we ask you to send these veterans comfort and peace. May they live long as examples of courage and faith, and may they inspire their children and grandchildren to stand ready to defend our Constitution, our God-given rights, and our faith. May you raise up all our dear veterans in the palm of your hand, and bless them. Amen.

Crossing the Chasm
 There's a clever comic strip that shows a group of Christians walking in the same direction along a barren plateau on their way to heaven. They all carry large wooden crosses, like the cross Jesus carried. They are all bowed down under the weight. It looks very uncomfortable.
 One of them stops, lays down his cross, and turns to God in prayer. "Lord," he says, "I want to follow you, but this cross is just too heavy. Can you please lighten it?" Hearing no answer, he pulls out a saw and cuts down the long end of the cross by about a foot.
 He continues along carrying his self-customized cross, but it is still uncomfortable, so he stops once again to pray.
 "Lord, you know that I love you, but I am just not strong enough to carry this cross. It's too big for me!"
 Then he gets out his saw again, and cuts off another two feet. Smiling, he continues his journey. All of a sudden he comes to a huge chasm. A deep abyss separates the plateau he is on from the one on the other side, where the road to heaven continues. He doesn't know how to cross the chasm, so he looks around to see what everyone else is doing.
 He sees that they are laying down their crosses to cover the abyss, like little bridges, and walking along them to the other side. So he lays down his cross to do the same thing. To his horror, he discovers that his cross doesn't reach; it's three feet too short. By cutting God down to his size, he had cut himself off from God.

PROUD TO SUPPORT ST PATRICK CATHOLIC CHURCH

Capital Campaign Prayer
Heavenly Father,
By your Divine Will and Providence, you established our parish under the patronage of St. Patrick 150 years ago. Throughout these years you have provided for and guided our parish with your Grace in every moment of need. With confidence we call upon your Divine Assistance once again, to guide us and lead us, to give us generous hearts open to Your Will, as we work to repair our Church. So that through our efforts and your Grace we may preserve our heritage, strengthen our faith, and our future, providing a holy place for generations to come to encounter and grow in the faith and love of Jesus Christ. We ask this, and all things, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
