Stewardship Reflection
June 18, 2023 —
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time provide us with profound insights into the essential aspects of living the stewardship way of life on our Christian journey.

In the first reading from Exodus, we witness the encounter between God and His chosen people at Mount Sinai. The Lord, through Moses, reminds the Israelites of His faithfulness and the covenant He has established with them. This reminds us of our vocation as stewards and disciples. They invite us to embrace the call to stewardship by recognizing our responsibility to care for God's creation and to generously share our gifts with others.

In our second reading from Romans, St. Paul beautifully articulates the depths of God's love for humanity. He reminds us that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us, reconciling us with God and offering us the gift of salvation. As stewards, we are called to gratefully recognize God's abundant love and respond by using our gifts and resources to build His kingdom. In our stewardship and discipleship, we discover the joy of participating in God's redemptive work, bringing hope and healing to a broken world.

The Gospel reading from Matthew recounts how Jesus is moved with compassion as He sees the crowds who are like sheep without a shepherd. He commissions His disciples, empowering them to continue His mission of healing and preaching the Kingdom of God. Like the Good Shepherd, we are called to have hearts filled with empathy and concern for those who are lost, suffering, or in need. Stewardship challenges us to extend a helping hand, offer comfort, and meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

By living a life of stewardship and discipleship, we are challenged to move beyond our comfort zones, embracing the call to serve and witness to the transformative power of Christ's love. This requires a willingness to step out in faith, be empowered by the Holy Spirit, and to be instruments of God's grace and healing.

So God Made a Father....

Happy Father's Day to all the dads, stepdads, granddads, adoptive fathers, foster fathers and father figures in our lives. Having a caring father in one's life is not only one of life's great joys, but also crucially important to a child's development. And don't forget about the father of your best friend who showed you how to ride a bike, the teacher at school who helped you develop an interest in history or the uncle who encouraged your musical talent. Please take the time today to let them know you remember and are grateful.

—Paul Harvey

I don't know where fathers go when they die.
But I've an idea that after a good rest, wherever it is,
he won't be happy unless there's work to do.
He won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl
he's loved and the children she bore.
He'll be busy there, too, repairing the stairs,
oiling the gates, improving the streets,
smoothing the way.

Happy Fathers Day.

Please Pray for: Jim Simon

Reminder:
From June 27 - August 4, Fr. Curtis will be away from the parish for a 30-Day Ignatian Silent Retreat. During that time Fr. Floyd McKinney will be coming to Parsons to cover the weekday/ weekend Masses and any sacramental emergencies that may arise.

Commissioned by Christ to reach out

A young mother was taking a course in sociology. The class was assigned to go out and smile at three people and document their reaction. The next day she and her family were in a McDonald's on a cold, clear morning. She writes, "We were standing in line, waiting to be served, when all of a sudden everyone around us began to back away, and then even my husband did. I did not move an inch. As I turned around, I smelled a horrible 'dirty body' smell, and there standing behind me were two poor, homeless men. One of them smiled up at me, looking for acceptance. The second man fumbled with his hands, obviously mentally deficient and totally dependent on his friend. They had a handful of coins and bought only coffee because that was all they could afford. They had to buy something in order to sit down where it was warm. Acting on impulse, I bought two extra breakfasts and took them to the table where the men sat. I put the tray on the table and laid my hand on the blue-eyed gentleman's cold hand. He looked up at me with tears in his eyes and said, 'Thank you.' I leaned over, began to pat his hand and said, 'I did not do this for you; God is here working through me to give you hope.'" (Coy Wylie, "Stewardship ... Laborers or Loafers?"). Here is a Christian lady commissioned by Christ to reach out "the sheep without shepherds" as Jesus sent his apostles to the shepherdless sheep with teaching and healing authority as described in today's Gospel.
