Parish POSADA...

A Posada is an old Mexican tradition developed to help missionaries teach about the Christmas Story, specifically about Mary and Joseph's search for shelter prior to Jesus's birth. Posadas involve everyone, and include a novena, with a Rosary recited nightly in the days preceding Christmas Eve. Los Posadas will begin on Sunday Dec.16th. Joseph and Mary will lead the group on a search to find an "Inn" where Jesus can be born. When hospitality is found, a celebration will follow in the home. The schedule will be confirmed soon, and will be available on the back tables of the church when complete. If you would like to participate, help or host... and for more information, call Delores Shaw @ 423-5198.

Thank you! Keith & Leslie Keller for fixing the bench in the church foyer.

Happy Thanksgiving

We give Thanks..

We give You thanks most of all for the gift of Your Son, Jesus. Please bless the food we eat, all who are gathered today to share it, and all our loved ones who can't be with us today. We ask this as we ask all things, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Advance Stewardship Reflection
November 19, 2023
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are reminded today that we will each be called to give an account for the gifts God has given us — our physical, intellectual and material gifts — as well as the gift of time itself. Jesus illustrates this truth in our Gospel passage from Matthew. He tells the parable of a wealthy man who is about to go on a journey. Before he leaves, the man calls his three servants to “entrust his possessions to them.”

The master in our parable gives to the care of each servant a portion of his money (“talent”) commensurate with that servant’s abilities. The first two prove to be good and faithful servants — they “immediately” put the talents to use, doubling what had been entrusted to them. The third servant reacted to this responsibility with fear — in fact, he did the opposite. He hid master’s talent, burying it in the ground. He took the safe way, the easy way out.

What a tragic response!

This servant did not understand his master at all. He failed to see what a privilege he had been given. The master wanted to give all his servants the joy and satisfaction of helping him grow his kingdom. This is what our Heavenly Father wants for us, too — the incredible privilege of helping to advance the coming of the Kingdom of God.

Let us embrace the stewardship way of life, using all the gifts entrusted to us — Time, Talent, and Treasure — in such a way that at the end of our life on this earth, we will hear these words from our Father: “Well done, my good and faithful servant... Come, share your master’s joy.”

Upcoming Retreat at the Spiritual Life Center!
Entering into the Mystery of the Heart of Mary
— An Advent Retreat
Friday, Dec 8, 6:30pm through Saturday, Dec 9, 4:00pm

"But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart." - Luke 2:19

Come away on retreat to “treasure all these things.” Enter into this most blessed time of Advent with our Mother Mary as your guide and inspiration, to find peace and rest amid the pressures and busyness of this season.

Retreatants will pray with, in, and through Scripture and Our Blessed Mother’s revelations throughout the centuries; imploring her to help us enter into the mysteries of God and of her Heart.

This is an invitation to take time to journey with Mary this Advent, helping us to prepare and increase our longing for Jesus’ coming ever anew into our hearts and lives.

This retreat will include an evening Mass on Friday and a morning Mass on Saturday. Opportunities for Confession will be available. Please bring a Bible and a journal.

Bless Us, O Lord, and These Thy Gifts

In one of my classes in seminary, the instructor would have us seminarians take turns leading a prayer of our choice before the start of each class. I remember one particular class beginning with one of my fellow seminarians praying, “Bless us, O Lord, and these Thy Gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy Bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen.” This prayer of course is the traditional prayer before meals. All of us, including the instructor, looked at him strangely once the prayer was finished, thinking that he must have forgotten that we were in class not the cafeteria. But he went on to explain to all of us that it wasn’t a mistake, but that he meant to pray that prayer. He pointed out that nowhere in that short prayer does it mention anything specifically about food. It simply acknowledges the gifts come from God and gives thanks to God for those gifts (whatever they may be) about to be received. He then asked rhetorically, “Is not the instruction and knowledge we are about to receive in this class a gift from God?”. Of course he was entirely right, and this memory and lesson has remained with me for 18 years. Perhaps, we would be well served if we prayed this prayer more often, not just before meals, because of course we receive so many gifts from God throughout the course of our days. Yet how often do we acknowledge them as gifts, how often do we give thanks for those gifts? The more grateful we are, the more we acknowledge the gifts of God and thereby His Presence and Action in our daily lives the more peace and joy we can be filled with.
