Dear Saints families and dear parishioners,
 We are excited to share that thanks to the generosity of some wonderful donors, we have made significant progress in improving our school facility. Currently, we have successfully painted three classrooms, creating a brighter and more welcoming environment for our students. However, we still have more work to do! We have run out of paint and funds to complete the painting of additional classrooms. Your support is crucial in helping us finish this important task. Additionally, we are facing plumbing issues in the boys' bathroom that require floor work and the installation of a new drain. This repair is essential to ensure a safe and functional environment for our students. If you are able to contribute financially, please contact the school or our parish office. Thank you for your continued support and generosity.
 With you in Christ,
 Mrs. Autumn Carson

 June 16, 2024
 Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we enter back into Ordinary Time, our readings today remind us that heaven is our true home and that we cannot make it there without God's assistance.
 In our First Reading, the prophet Ezekiel foretells the coming of the Kingdom of God. We can see that Jesus is the cedar that will become refuge for all people. He will humble the proud, lift up the lowly and produce good fruit in the weakened. It is God who does the wondrous works.
 We often go through life wanting to be in control. We try to solve all our problems, as we think, "I can do it myself." We cling to our own ideas by putting certain events, future plans or even day-to-day moments into a perfect little box, "This is the way I want it." We can even push back in moments of suffering by trying to find every possible way to get out of it. We are "in control."
 Imagine what life would be like if we surrendered a little more. It is easier said than done — but, oh, how freeing it would be.
 What if we opened our clenched hands to God and said, "Thy will be done"?
 We would become free from attachment and more blessed than we could ever imagine.
 Only God can do all that He promised in our First Reading. We need Him. All we need to do is surrender. To help us on this journey of total surrender, try starting each day with a prayer of surrender, "Lord, I give You this day and all that You have in store for me, my family and friends." With the guidance of the Lord, surely we will make it home to heaven.

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS HELD IN INDIANAPOLIS, IN, JULY 17-21, 2024
 This revival is a pilgrimage. Processions from the North, South, East and West will be starting soon and culminating in a final procession through downtown Indianapolis. All Catholics are urged to participate in some way. Make plans to attend this historic event! All information is available at eucharisticcongress.org or catholicdioceseofwichita.org

A Mother's Prayer to the Guardian Angels of her Children
I humbly salute you, O you faithful, heavenly Friends of my children! I give you heartfelt thanks for all the love and goodness you show them. At some future day I shall, with thanks more worthy than I can now give, repay your care for them, and before the whole heavenly court acknowledge their indebtedness to your guidance and protection. Continue to watch over them.
Provide for all their needs of body and soul. Pray, likewise, for me, for my husband, and my whole family, that we may all one day rejoice in your blessed company. Amen. - Catholic Online

Please Pray for: Eternal Rest Grant Unto Him Oh Lord Ed Dhooghe, husband to Celiece, father to Chris and Jeff, and brother to Max (Cindy). Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon Him, May He Rest in Peace.

"Don't ever stop. It means a lot to those around you."
 In a restaurant, a family of five bowed their heads in prayer before beginning to eat. One of the children, a girl of about ten, expressed thanks for the entire family in a hushed voice, her head bobbing expressively. A few moments later a couple, on their way to pay their check, paused at the family's table. "It's been a long time since we've seen anyone do that," said the man, extending his hand to the father. The father smiled and replied, "It was strange at first, but we always express thanks at home before we eat. The children continued it when we went to restaurants, so we just went along with it, and now it's our way." The woman who had come up to the table patted the little girl on the shoulder and obviously touched, looked at the mother and said, "Don't ever stop. It means a lot to those around you." - It seems like such a little thing, but it was a witness. The seeds of the Kingdom are little, and we are called to scatter them.

So God Made a Father....
 Happy Father's Day to all the dads, stepdads, granddads, adoptive fathers, foster fathers and father figures in our lives. Having a caring father in one's life is not only one of life's great joys, but also crucially important to a child's development. And don't forget about the father of your best friend who showed you how to ride a bike, the teacher at school who helped you develop an interest in history or the uncle who encouraged your musical talent. Please take the time today to let them know you remember and are grateful. -Paul Harvey

I don't know where fathers go when they die.
 But I've an idea that after a good rest, wherever it is, he won't be happy unless there's work to do.
 He won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore.
 He'll be busy there, too, repairing the stairs, oiling the gates, improving the streets, smoothing the way.

Prayer for Fathers
 God, our Father
 Bless these men,
 that they may find strength as fathers.
 Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
 Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
 may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.
