 Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today remind us that God always has our best interests in mind. No matter what is going on in our lives, God is with us.

In our Gospel today, Jesus and His disciples are traveling in a boat when heavy winds and violent waves begin to overwhelm the boat. Jesus was there sleeping in the boat in the midst of this horrific storm.

The disciples woke Jesus and questioned Him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Jesus calms the wind and the waves, and then asks them in return, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Think back to a time that you endured great suffering, a hard trial or felt overwhelmed with life. How did you respond? In moments of trial, we often live our days in a panic. We see the water coming into our boat and we do all that we can in our power to stay afloat. We are frantic, so we fail to stop and recognize that our Savior is in the same boat with us. Although it might feel like He is sleeping and His presence is lacking, He is right there suffering with us.

God won't allow anything that we cannot handle. In a moment of suffering, we might feel trapped. Yet, He sees the moment of peace and still waters.

During our trials, cling to Jesus. Know that there is an end, and whether we see the end in this life or the next, God allows it all for our salvation.

Today, let us thank God for His presence in our lives, and ask for the eyes of faith to see that He is right here with us always.

He is always with us and for us

A young Indian boy approached manhood and, as the custom with his tribe, he had to undergo several tests to prove his bravery, before acceptance into the fighting braves of the tribe. He was brought out into the middle of a forest and left there alone all night. He was terrified. Every leaf that fell, every branch that creaked, every movement in the underground caused his heart to pound. He never knew a night could be so long. On several occasions, he would have run away, but where does one run in a forest in the middle of the night? After what seemed an eternity, the light of dawn began to filter through the trees. In a relatively short time, his eyes got used to the growing light, and soon he was able to see clearly. He moved from where he was and as he approached the nearest tree, he was amazed to find his father standing there with a gun. He had stood there on guard all night long. The young lad's instant response was to think, "If I had known that my father was watching over me like that, I would have slept soundly all night." — When you die, you will discover that your Father was standing guard there all the time.

Update:

Dear Saints families and dear parishioners,
 We are excited to share that thanks to the generosity of some wonderful donors, we have made significant progress in improving our school facility. We have successfully painted three classrooms, and the recent donations are allowing us to finish the other rooms that need painted, creating a brighter and more welcoming environment for our students. However, we still have more work to do! Your support is needed to purchase mini splits for three of our classrooms. Additionally, we are facing plumbing issues in the boys' bathroom that require floor work and the installation of a new drain, estimates for this project should arrive soon. This repair is essential to ensure a safe and functional environment for our students. If you are able to contribute financially, please contact the school or our parish office. Thank you for your continued support and generosity.

With you in Christ,
 Mrs. Autumn Carson

A Proud Tradition..
 St. Patrick Catholic School was established in 1883 and has seen many changes since that time. There have been six different school buildings, and at one time three different parishes, educating the Catholic youth in Parsons. Our current school building was built in 1950. St. Patrick's is also the oldest Catholic school in our diocese to continually remain open as the tradition continues over 140 years later.
