Advance Stewardship Reflection
 October 20, 2024
 Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service. We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ.

James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life. Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us.

So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me?

It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus.

- The 15 Promises of Our Lady to Those Who Pray the Rosary
- To all those who shall recite my rosary devoutly, I promise my special protection and very great graces.
 - Those who shall persevere in the recitation of my rosary shall receive signal graces.
 - The rosary shall be a very powerful armor against hell; it will destroy vice, deliver from sin, and dispel heresy.
 - The rosary will make virtue and good works flourish, and will obtain for souls the most abundant divine mercies; it will draw the hearts of men from the love of the world to the love of God, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. How many souls shall sanctify themselves by this means!
 - Those who trust themselves to me through the rosary shall not perish.
 - Those who shall recite my rosary devoutly, meditating on its mysteries, shall not be overwhelmed by misfortune. The sinner shall be converted; the just shall grow in grace and become worthy of eternal life.
 - Those truly devoted to my rosary shall not die without the Sacraments of the Church.
 - Those who faithfully recite my rosary shall find during their life and at the hour of their death the light of God, the fullness of his graces, and shall share in the merits of the blessed.
 - I shall deliver very promptly from purgatory the souls devoted to my rosary.
 - The true children of my rosary shall enjoy great glory in heaven.
 - What you ask through my rosary, you shall obtain.
 - Those who propagate my rosary will be aided by me in all their necessities.
 - I have obtained from my Son that all the members of the Rosary Confraternity shall have as their intercessors, in life and in death, the entire celestial court.
 - Those who recite my rosary faithfully are all my beloved children, the brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ.
 - Devotion to my rosary is a great sign of predestination

St. Therese described the Rosary as a long chain that linked heaven and earth. When we pray we hold one end and Mary holds the other. -
