Thank you..
 We would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to the Knights of Columbus for their generous donation toward our school roof repairs. Thanks to your support, we look forward to having our roof replaced this summer, a project that wouldn't be possible without your help. Your kindness and commitment to our school and parish are deeply appreciated.
 With you in Christ, Mrs. Autumn Carson

Prayer for All Souls Day, Saturday Nov. 2nd
 "Eternal Father, I offer thee the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my home and within my family. Amen

Advance Stewardship Reflection

 Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Psalm today, "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy," sheds light on our glorious Gospel reading about the healing of the blind man, Bartimaeus.

We can learn a lot from Bartimaeus when it comes to our own personal relationships with Jesus. Many of us struggle with something from which we need healing — physical blindness, illness, addiction, bad habits, anger, sin. In our weakness, do we confidently cry out to Jesus knowing that He will help us?

Often times we begin to, but then a voice in our thoughts tells us to doubt and encourages us to stop trying, like the crowd in our Gospel. Although that voice is persistent and strong, we are called to cry out all the more. If Jesus can hear one voice in a crowd of many, then He can hear our direct prayer to Him in our hearts.

Our Gospel story closes with the miraculous moment when Bartimaeus is healed. The conversation with Jesus was simple. Jesus asked Bartimaeus what he would like Him to do. This man, blind for who knows how many years, desired sight. Jesus responded, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." He was healed and continued to follow Christ.

There was not much that Bartimaeus had to do to become healed. All he needed was his undoubting faith.

Whatever it is that we are struggling with in this life, all Jesus asks of us is to have faith in Him. As a result, we will remain steadfast in our relationship with Christ and will have the strength to keep going. And although we might not be healed in this life, Jesus still hears our confident cries. And through our faith we will surely be healed in the next.

Thank you..
 What an incredible evening we had at this year's School of Shamrock auction! I am truly amazed by the dedication and generosity of our auction committee, volunteers, and everyone who supported us through donations or participation. The success of this event is a testament to the hard work and heart that our community consistently brings. Thank you to each and every one of you for making this event not only possible but memorable. Your contributions directly benefit our school, staff and our students, helping us continue to grow and thrive.
 With you in Christ,
 Mrs. Autumn Carson

Thank you..
 We are incredibly thankful to the Knights of Columbus and the Altar Society for generously providing lunch for our students and staff. Your kindness and dedication to our school community make a meaningful difference, and we deeply appreciate your continued support.
 Thank you for all that you do!
 With you in Christ,
 Mrs. Autumn Carson
