Advance Stewardship Reflection
 November 10, 2024
 Thirty-second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Today's First Reading from the First Book of Kings, as well as the Gospel passage from Mark, both center on the actions of two seemingly poor and helpless widows who show themselves to be faith-filled and generous stewards. In the eyes of the world, particularly in biblical times when there was no life insurance or Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent on others to take care of them. They each found themselves in desperate situations — one in the midst of famine with a child for which to care, and the other clearly impoverished. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them from those around them. From where did this strength come?

It came from knowing who they are, and Whose they are. These women must have known their security would not come from a good life insurance policy or connections to someone with a hidden storehouse of flour. No, their security came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God and from putting their faith in Him. They had no need to panic in the midst of natural disaster or cling desperately to their menial resources. Their faith in God set them free to trust Him when all seemed hopeless. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions. Their faith allowed them to be brave and generous, to think of others despite their own trials. These women saw themselves as stewards, not owners, of the resources God gave them, regardless of how much or how little they had. And acting as stewards made them gracious, generous and mighty indeed.

Prayer for Veterans
 Heavenly Father, we ask you to look down upon our brothers and sisters in arms, and bless them as they stand ready to defend us from the agents of evil. For those who are preparing and training to serve, we ask you to make them strong and resolute in their calling, so that in the hour of need they will serve ably and honorably. For those who serve, we ask you to send blessings of comfort and encouragement. May they know they are not forgotten, either by you or their loved ones at home. For those who experience the horrors of war, we most fervently beseech you, O Lord, to place your hand upon their hearts and steady them in battle. Be their shield and bulwark in battle. For those who have returned from service, we ask your special intercession. In returning home, many of our sons and daughters face new battles with enemies, lethal as bullets. Embrace these children of discord, and hold them tightly to your bosom, Lord, so they may know your comfort in their darkest moments. Restore sight to their eyes, and shine radiant upon their faces, that they may walk not in the shadows which ensnare, but in the light of your glory. For our wounded veterans, who bear scars in their hearts, minds, and bodies, we ask your blessing. Lord, cherish this wounded legion, invited to share in the suffering of Christ. May they see Christ though their pain, and find hope in His promises. We await the day you make their mbodies and their hearts whole once again. For those who have left their uniform hanging in the past, who move with difficulty, m who reflect with a distant gaze upon times better unknown, we ask you to send these veterans comfort and peace. May they mlive long as examples of courage and faith, and may they inspire their children and grandchildren to stand ready to defend our Constitution, our God-given rights, and our faith. May you raise up all our dear veterans in the palm of your hand, and bless them. Amen
