Stewardship Reflection
 October 26th, 2025
 In last week's readings, we were encouraged to remain persistent and constant in our prayer life. Today, we focus on the proper attitude of a steward at prayer.
 In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus illustrates the humble attitude we must have as we approach God in prayer through a parable of two praying men. One is a Pharisee, a man with respected status, theological training, and all the right credentials. He marches right up to the front of the temple to speak a prayer "to himself," thanking God for making him just a little bit superior to everyone else!
 The other man is a tax collector, known by those of his day to be a cheater and a sell-out to his fellow Jews. In contrast to the Pharisee, he stands near the back and cries out to God in a simple and honest way: "Be merciful to me a sinner."
 Jesus tells us that it is the tax collector and not the Pharisee who leaves the temple justified. Why?
 The Pharisee was full of self as he approached God. He felt no real need for God as he rattled off his resume of good works and spiritual practices. He was simply going through the motions of prayer. His lack of humility prevented him from entering into a real dialogue with the Father. He was not transformed by his time of prayer because he was so full of himself that He left God no space to enter in.
 The tax collector, by contrast, emptied himself as he approached God. He recognized who he truly was (a sinner) and asked simply for mercy, leaving all the rest up to God. This is the kind of attitude that God can work with! This is how a good steward prays — with trust, with complete openness to God's will, with a listening mind and heart, ready to serve as God leads.

The Cherryvale-Liberty Knights of Columbus is conducting a membership drive for any male Catholic in good standing on Tuesday, October 28 following the 6:00 pm Mass at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Cherryvale at approximately 6:30 pm.  A List Of Saints Who Never Suffered, Faced Trials, Or Experienced Temptation
 3.
 4.
 5.
 Were you expecting to see the names of your favorite Saints on this list? Or, perhaps, maybe you thought that it would be a list of Saints you've never heard of? There's not one Saint that could be included on this list. Every one of the Saints experienced suffering, trials, and temptation. What makes the Saints different, is how they chose to respond to each hardship and inclination to sin. Instead of despair, they chose hope. Instead of running from God, they ran to Him. Instead of death, they chose life in Christ. Ask the Saints to intercede for you today and to help you with the battles you are facing. They've been there too. "My brothers, consider it a great joy when trials of many kinds come upon you, for you well know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance, and perseverance must complete its work so that you will become fully developed, complete, not deficient in any way. Any of you who lacks wisdom must ask God, who gives to all generously and without scolding; it will be given. But the prayer must be made with faith, and no trace of doubt, because a person who has doubts is like the waves thrown up in the sea by the buffeting of the wind." — James 1:2-6

My Novena Rose Prayer
O Little Therese of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly gardens and send it to me as a message of love.
O Little Flower of Jesus, ask God to grant the favors
I now place with confidence in your hands . .
(mention in silence here)
St. Therese, help me to always believe as you did in God's great love for me, so that I might imitate your "Little Way" each day.
Amen

Thank you...
For all who gave their time and talents to make sure our Church and School grounds look Amazing, the mowing crews, all who planted and tended to all the flower beds, words can not express our gratitude for all you do..

All Saints Day is for the saints in Heaven. According to the Catholic faith, the main difference between All Souls Day and All Saints Day is that 'All Souls Day' remembers the church penitent of souls in purgatory. Meanwhile, 'All Saints Day' commemorates the church triumphant of saints in Heaven.
