St. Joseph the Worker is the patron saint of workers, craftsmen, and engineers, celebrated by the Catholic Church on May 1st. Established in 1955 by Pope Pius XII, this feast highlights the dignity of human labor, presenting St. Joseph—the carpenter foster father of Jesus—as a model for all laborers

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This long-standing tradition honors Mary as the Mother of God and Mother of the Church through special devotions, including the "May Crowning" ceremony where a statue of Mary is adorned with flowers, symbolizing her beauty and virtue.

"To recite the rosary means to learn to gaze on Jesus with His Mother's eyes, and to love Jesus with His Mother's heart."
 —St. John Paul II

Stewardship Reflection
 April 26th, 2026

Today's readings on this fourth Sunday of Easter offer us a glimpse into the heart of our loving Savior. He is the Good Shepherd and we can confidently place our trust in Him as we live the stewardship way of life. This endearing image of Jesus as our shepherd, and His personal love for each one of us, is described in our Gospel passage from John, through the words of Jesus Himself. Here we read Jesus' description of Himself as the "Good Shepherd." He says of Himself, "The sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice."

This aspect of our Lord's tender and personal love for each one of us is a compelling reason to embrace the stewardship way of life — in the offering of our time, talent, and treasure to Him, we can express our gratitude to Him for the incomprehensible love He has for us. Embracing this way of life certainly requires trust on our part. But Christ has proven Himself worthy of our trust. He "bore our sins in His body." He calls Himself our shepherd and He offers Himself as the guardian of our souls. He has withheld nothing of Himself and His goodness from us. He would never ask anything of us that would bring us harm. He tells us "I came so that [you] might have life and have it more abundantly."

This Easter season, let us resolve to entrust ourselves and our lives gratefully to Him.

We are seeking a compassionate, reliable, and patient individual to provide one-on-one support for a kindergarten-aged child with Autism and sensory processing needs. This position plays a vital role in helping the child successfully engage in the classroom environment and daily routines.

Schedule:
 Tuesday–Friday (school-day hours; exact times to be discussed)

- Responsibilities:
- Provide individualized support throughout the school day
 - Assist with transitions, routines, and classroom participation
 - Support emotional regulation and sensory needs
 - Accompany and support the child during daily Mass, helping them remain engaged and regulated in that setting
 - Collaborate with the classroom teacher and caregivers
 - Help implement simple strategies to encourage communication, engagement, and independence

Please contact the School Office @ 620-421-0710

Please Pray for: The end of abortion and all sins against life.

"Be Still and Know I Am God."
